
this note was sent to Marie Trapp a grand child of Joseph Trapp & niece of Frank Trapp. She died and it was found in her belongings.

A cousin sent it to me. Would love to see the original. Think my cousin has it.

Read it and let me know how you translate it.

Gino

as to your P^r

Your grate great grandfather a soldier with Napoleon etc

Your Great G F was a Minister

" G F was an educated man got into trouble with the hierarchy of the Church first. and the Gov.
lost in consequence of which he had to leave home between two days, his name was Christian Trapp pronounced Trop in English Swift.

G. M. name was Eva Kuntz

I married Mary Parker Sawyer in Sep Ky in 1865. we had only one daughter Mary Lillian L. Trapp.

she married Georg H Breaker. to their was born Baby Marie Edgar Parker a Cotton factor, a very fine and Successful Business man.

As to your ?'s

Your Great great grandfather [was] a soldier with Napolion [unreadable]

Your Great Grand father was a Mi[nister]

Your Grandfather was a Educater who got into trouble with the hiarchy of the church first. And, the gov. last in cociyauiea[?] of which he had to leave home between two days. His name was Christian Trapp pronounced Trapp in English script.

Grand mother's name was Eva Kuntz.

I married Mary [?] Sawyer in Lexington, Kentucky in 1865. We had only one Daughter named Lillian L. Trapp. She married George H. Breaker to them was born Ruby, married Edgar [Pearson?] a cotton factor [factory owner?] a very fine and successful business man.

[illegible]

the Hester Chinn part refers to
 J. D. Trapp ^{FJ's brother?} Wife's family
 the reason I sent this is for the letter
 head

J. D. Trapp son of Christena Trapp and Eva Kuntz Trapp

Joseph Ball Chinn

Dr Joseph Chinn

Nester Chinn

Barber Traves

Joseph Traves

Barber Traves

Barber Traves

Mary Jackson

Robert Gordon

John Gillock

Barber
 Carl

The Old Clock Shop

F. J. TRAPP, MANAGER
 3617 BURLINGTON AVENUE
 HOUSTON, TEXAS

WE ARE IN THE MARKET FOR ANTIQUE CLOCKS THAT HAVE ARTISTIC OR HISTORIC VALUE
 WHAT HAVE YOU?